

Hi Cherry Blossom!

I hope you've all had a good week. The sun has been shining so it's important to enjoy it while it lasts!

Buster has only really just started speaking to me again after I cut his fringe last week. He's now resorted to wearing a wig as he feels so embarrassed. I don't think my efforts were too bad! As a result, my hubby won't let me near his hair at all (that's spoilt my fun!)

My teens have been quite reasonable completing their school work this week. No major rows. Mmm... they must want something... probably extra pocket money!

So, did you guess me correctly for our competition? (Well done if you did!) I was the cutest one! Mrs Mulla has emailed the answers to your grown-ups.

Don't forget to take a look at our lock-down newsletter, Miss Gerrard does a fantastic job putting it together.

I hope you are all being super helpful at home, I've heard Ben and Isaac have been learning some important life skills. Well done boys!

Take care everyone and keep smiling!

Lots of love

Mrs Wilkinson xxx
